

ELPAC Bootcamp

TIME: 9:15 - 10:15

LOCATION: Roosevelt Junior High

1330 College Ave.

WHAT IS THE ELPAC?

The ELPAC (English Language Proficiency Assessment of California) is the test that is used to measure how well students in kindergarten through twelfth grade understand English when it is not their primary language.

WHAT IS ELPAC BOOTCAMP?

The bootcamp is a 4 session workshop focusing on one strand of the ELPAC at a time. During the bootcamp, the foci will be on the task types and strategies that can be utilized at home. The goal is to help students to attain fluent English proficiency.
